- 1. Review of 2023 Season, Harbor Master Sanville commented that this has been the busiest season since the Pandemic and that seasonal slip sales was up along with transient boater reservations so far. Mr. Sanville also said he believes that numbers will be up again next year. He also said that this years Harbor Fest was well attended and that he will be making some changes to the musical lineup for next year.

2. Marina Rates Harbor Master Sanville commented that he hasn't seen information from the State on rates for 2024, but that he hopes that rate information will be available for October.
3. Bar Restaurant Information, City Council Liaison Member Karen Moore said that there has been interest in the development of a Bar Restaurant in the area of the Marina. She said that there is at least one person with interest in this potential project. She said that hopefully a work session meeting will be held very soon to discussion options and possibilities.
